Web Site Terms and Conditions of Use

GDPR

On May 25, 2018, a new privacy mandate called the General Data Protection Regulation(GDPR) becomes law. The GDPR expands the privacy rights of residents of the European Union and places new obligations on service providers like Leaders on Purpose which control and process personal data from the EU. Leaders on Purpose views GDPR as an opportunity to deepen our commitment to privacy and data protection internally and with all of our global clients.

As the new era of data privacy unfolds, it goes beyond policies and system settings, requiring both organizational and cultural shifts. Compliance with the GDPR demands a partnership between Leaders on Purpose, its sub-processors, and our customers. Leaders on Purpose is committed to GDPR compliance throughout our operations and in the delivery of service to our clients. We are also dedicated to helping our customers comply throughout our partnership. Leaders on Purpose legal counsel has closely analysed requirements of the GDPR. We are making enhancements to our products, contracts, and documentation. We are also raising the awareness and competence of our associates globally to support compliance.
